

Mrs. Harrison - August 11 -

man named Chief Talk. wife Elk Woman. her sweet heart, not favorite child - Kut-ai-Tsin it-po-ka. Satter went to war and was killed. Chief Talks about had had suspicions that she loved him.
When the young man was killed and news came his father and mother took his horse, put all his property on it, they in mourning.
Set horse outside of camp.
Old man had arrows through calf of each leg. Mother chopped off fingers. neither wore robe. Arrows slashed. Woman legs too. When old people passed Chief Talk's lodge his young wife held her head down.
He asked "What is the matter of these people? He knew, but got up and looked out of the lodge.
Saw them leading horse. In an insulting way said: "That is a funny way to drive a horse, looks as though had load of meat on him."

Woman heard this insult. and told him "I shall mourn for for him. If I don't I shall kill you.

He told her to go ahead. if she loved him she could wait for him.

She went to the old people's lodge, and the old people dressed her in buckskin + elk tooth dress - cut finger off - cut hair. Then sent her home. Her man did nothing to her.

Boy Chief.

On the old Benton road at Mule River, Ben & Nellie camped and killing buffalo. Finished hunt about to go home. Chief said, "take all bones and get marrow grease - and we move camp next day."

In E. little party of G.I. Cross Assemblement. Early in evening they started for men people's camp At break of day came upon camp. Woman up to take green hide on side hill to stake, and saw war party. She cried out every evening. 5 lodges had turned horses loose. Enemy getting horses away Josh Robt with the camp, jumped on horse and got back all but eight head. They shot at him

Big Chief Aug 11.
Camp torn down and lodges stretched out one to the other.
Dug holes under them - rifle pits. 2 children killed & women shot. Some horses killed War party almost against lodges On upper side the same.
Fish-roke bin low said lets go depend lower side Fish-roke looked out saw enemy right against it. He jumped into a buffalo wallow they shooting at him. A woman came out with gun to help him. Only one far camp to help him. Here. On upper side a young chief took charge the defense. Flight soon ended quicker rode away. Chief told Fish Roke, "lets chase them" They and young chased. War party bunched up, and a few stood. Fish Roke saw his head circled and part got behind.
