I, F. X. Guardipee, being of legal age and being duly sworn make affidavit as follows:

That during the years of 1918-19 I was in the employ of the Blackfeet Agency at Browning, Montana, and that orders were issued by me to Sherburne Mercantile Company for the purpose of obtaining credit for the respective Indians which accounts were to be paid by the Blackfeet Agency.

I further swear that my acts were authorized by the Blackfeet Agency and that the store was to be reimbursed through the Blackfeet Agency by deduction from payments made to the Indian for supplies delivered to the government.

I further swear that I was closely connected with the affairs of office at that time and that I had prefect knowledge of all transactions of this kind handled by me.

I further swear that these supplies were furnished and that all of the orders made by me were paid in due course.

I further swear that I had knowledge of similar orders being issued to Indians in similar manner and for similar purpose by other employees and that this method of doing business was approved by the Blackfeet Agency Superintendent in charge.

I further swear that the purpose of this affidavit is to establish the above outlined manner of doing business and the entire approval and sanction of Blackfeet Agency in this manner of handling and the definite agreement on the part of such office to make payment of the accounts so made.

I, George S. Martin, after first being duly sworn, depose and say:

That during the years 1917, 1918, I was in the employ of the Blackfoot Indian Agency in the position of Superintendent of Live Stock. That the following orders were issued by me to the Sherburne Mercantile Company for the purpose of securing the Indians named credit to this store which account was to be paid by the Blackfoot Agency.

I further swear that my acts were authorized by the Blackfoot Agency and that the store was to be reimbursed through the Blackfoot Agency by payments made to the Indians for supplies delivered to the government and labor done in connection with the Tribe's herd.

I further swear that these supplies were furnished and the labor done by the Indians but that no payments were made by the Agency for them, and incidently the Sherburne Mercantile Company did not receive payment on the orders issued by me.

I further swear that I was closely connected with the affairs of the Agency at that time and I had personal knowledge of the transactions listed.

I further swear that during this period I issued many orders in the same manner most of which were paid, but that there is a balance of $250.10 remaining unpaid as shown by the list below.
