My Darling Wife,

The fishing tackle was all right - and well selected. I shall be back at the Boies. I got your letters for a day or two, it being the 22nd or 23rd. The lake is being fished at that time. Piling in the mountains from above here and the water becoming good steadily for fishing. Holt has not been out anywhere. He has anyone else - where ever any more is, I send it will write you at once - I write daily - excepting for a three days at the end of it, also. He should have some account. The letter containing checks in the amount of $167.00 in one and $169.00 in the other, in addition to the $100.00 check previously sent. If this thing continues as at present I will have to come down in March. If Solomonville is not arranged - as it should be can be. The people here are very hospitable and offer us every favor - I have been in three, and one - Some arriving from Fort Benton, other a messenger came from Fort Benton. Also that the money in sent down at once.

As it continues is very nice - unable to get water - The tender went, and one, and in their writing. I enclosed a letter from Solomon which I am enclosing here.

It is with great regret that I write to you today. I was hoping to hear from you and wanted to express my concern for your well-being. It is not unusual for mindsets to shift, and it seems that your habits have changed. I hope that you are well and that your health is improving.

Please do not hesitate to reach out if you need any help or support. Your address has not changed, and I would be happy to provide any assistance you may need.

My Darling Wife,

I am sending you this letter three days late after we reached the camp. I received a letter from you on the 14th and I am glad you inquired about my health and well-being. I am feeling much better now and hope to return to duty soon.

Yesterday the weather was quite cold and I had to wear my overcoat. The camp fires were burning brightly and gave off a warm glow. The stars were clear and the air was crisp.

I hope to hear from you again soon. Write as often as possible.

Yours affectionately,

My dearest wife,

This is just to let you know that I am not yet back at work and I hope to be there soon. I am writing this letter to thank you for the telegram you sent me last week. I am very grateful for your support and understanding.

I have enclosed the photographs of your children which are all right. I also sent a card which I hope you received. If you did not, please let me know. I am going to write to them soon. I am very anxious to see them.

I am going to come home soon. I have some letters to write and some things to do. I hope to be home in a few days. If you have any letters or packages, please forward them to me.

The weather here is still hot and it will be cool in a few days. I hope to be home soon. I will let you know as soon as I am back.

I am thinking of you and missing you very much. I hope you are well.
