My Uncle,

I was sorry to hear of your illness last of August. The reports are very pretty and the doctors very optimistic. I see that the last of the week Ed Parkin does not feel quite the full brunt of these in the doctor's office.

I received your note on the train.

My Darling -

I enclose a letter from Edgar Whitt to your home to Elma. Dad has been unwell here for a few days and the old folks are feeling a little better. There is a lot of snow and cold here, but it is quite mild. There have been occasional showers. I had a heavy snowstorm on the way before the letter arrived. The flies here are something terrible. They are all over the place and can be very annoying. I have been trying to keep my clothes and hands warm.

Do you have any plans for the weekend? It might be a good idea to plan something fun to do. It's been a bit cold, but it's still winter. You never know what the weather will bring.

All well and good news.

With best wishes from,

My dear wife,

Dusty and warm day. A house full of sick persons. From our room - Chills and fever - Wraiths and Worms. The Chills are what else I have been busy about. Ministers to their spiritual and physical needs. Of course this tell me I want to take some rest instead. There is food in the house, but I am not up to eating. I am down with a cold and have used my name - feel all day. To the increased chills of the fever - the Flu. It is terrible. Have been in bed for four days. Could not even go down the stairs. Closed the curtains and stay inside.

My dearest Wife,

There is no news from Camp - and there is no news from home. We are all as hopeful as we can be, but we are all ready for the worst. The news of the battle in Arkansas is very clear - and it looks like a real battle.

We are all very anxious for the outcome. The news of the battle in Louisiana is very cheering. We are all proud of the 9th Texas.

I hope you are well and that everything is as it should be. Please write and let me know how things are going.
