I have the honor to report that I have heard the Prize searched on both sides of the Rio Grande, and have certain reliable reports from General. The Potatoes are all gone - spading about 4,000 bushel Gages, and about 300 acres of Carrots. There are in cellars and in care of -

The fish appears to have been taken by boats built for that purpose - the owners of which I am unable to find out here. But some of them may be detected below. I have written to that end to both Posts below. In view of these facts I have thought it best to send back the Wagon and Detachments, and have the honor to request that Sgt. Ferne may be sent back with Pvt. Williams of Co.
and that they may be furnished with a Cart and two good Mules to work under the same as I had last Winter coming from Fort Hall. It is impossible for me to carry my property in two Back Mules. I need the Deez to go to the Camps, which are scattered and cold,

Sir:—

As the Battalion 2d Cavalry was approaching from Fort Ellis in the early spring, I had detached 1st Lieut. G. C. Doane, 2d Cavalry, and sent him to secure the services of the Crow warriors. In this he was very successful and their services as allies, with the force South of the Yellowstone, also in scouting the country along and North of the Yellowstone, to the West of this point, and in fighting and harassing the Nez Perces were of very great value and at a relatively small expenditure of rations and ammunition, on the part of the Government. Lieut. Doane's services, first in organizing the Crow and subsequently, on the approach of the Nez Perce, with whom they had been friendly relations, in retaining their loyalty to the Government were highly important and valuable.

Yours truly,

Capt. (or Maj.) Respectfully,
