

TCLI 2011 Agenda, June 6 – 10 Foundation Great Rm. , S. 11th & Lincoln Streets

Monday, June 6

8:30 – 9 am – Continental breakfast, courtesy of MSU Library Dean, Tamara Miller

9 am – Opening Prayer: Mari Russell; Welcome: Tamara Miller, Dean of the MSU Library

Introductions by all TCLI participants with brief institutional updates

10:15 – 10:45 Morning break

10:45 – noon Continue introductions & institutional updates, Burning Issues

Noon – 1:30 LUNCH ON YOUR OWN

1:30 – 2:45 Gail Kouame, NNLM/PNR Regional Medical Library in Seattle, "Can I Wash My Fruit With Comet?"

2:45 – 3:15 – afternoon break

3:15 – 5:00 – Panel presentation on the state of library services and resources for Canadian Aboriginal college students: report from our tribal college library colleagues across the border: Marilyn Bellhumeur, Liz Fulton-Lyne, Phyllis Lerat, Wendy Sinclair, Nora Stabs Down, Mary Weasel Fat

Tuesday, June 7

9 am Announcements – Ginny Weeks/BCC: Invitation to Vietnam Veterans' Honor Celebration to inaugurate new collection of Vietnam materials, donated by Gary McCone

9:15 – 10:30 – Accreditation: a view from both sides! – Ginny Weeks, Blackfeet Community College; Joan Hantz, Chief Dull Knife Memorial College; Sheila Bonnand, Montana State University

10:30 – 11 – break

11 – noon - Christy Goodnight, Utah Valley University (and formerly MSU) Managing Media in Changing Times

Noon – 1:30 lunch on your own

1:30 – 2:45 William Billeck – Manager of the Repatriation Office at the Smithsonian Institution's National Museum of Natural History

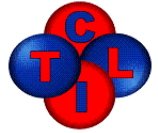

2:45 – 3:15 break

3:15 annual Group Photo -- assemble in stairway of Foundation Building (Shari Curtis, photographer)

3:30 – 4:30 MSU NAS Wikipedia Project – Kristin Ruppel, Bonnie, Mike Cline, NAS student

4:30 – 5:00 pm – other Burning Issues?

Evening optional event: Farmer's Market, 5-8 pm, Bogert Pavillion, South Church Ave. between East Story and East Curtiss Streets (food available from a few vendors, plus arts and crafts, etc.)

Wednesday, June 8 NOTE DIFFERENT LOCATION– COMPUTER LAB in REID Hall Room 302

(if you need transportation to lab, let us know; you can be dropped off right behind Reid Hall)

9 am – 12:30 Jerry O'Donnell, Partnership & Data Services Program, Denver Regional Census Center, U. S. Census Bureau (Brief Break at presenter's discretion)

Lunch on your own; Free Time Wednesday Afternoon --- optional things to do/places to visit:

MSU Library, MSU Special Collections, Museum of the Rockies; Bozeman Public Library; Downtown Bozeman; Group hike up Hyalite Canyon (~30 minute drive from town), Other?

EVENING OPTION: MSU Friends of the Library Book Group, Bozeman Public Library, 7 – 9 pm
BPL Small Community Meeting Room; Book choice: Two Old Women: An Alaska Legend of Betrayal, Courage, and Survival by Velma Wallis. Each year the June meeting focuses on a book by or about Native Americans. Tribal College Librarians are invited to join in the discussion.

Thursday, June 9

9 am announcements

9:05 – 10:15 -- Gary McCone , National Museum of Language

10:15 – 10:45 break

10:45 – noon Website Architecture - Tim Donahue, MSU Instruction Librarian

Noon – 1:30 lunch on your own

1:30 – 2:30 -- Rachel Lindvall - The Extension/Library connection

2:30 – 3:30 – Spencer Lilley, Fulbright Scholar, library services to Indigenous students in New Zealand

3:30 – 4:00 -- break

4:00 – 5:00 TCULA Discussion –group consortial purchases, other issues

5:45ish –no-host annual group dinner at Spectator's Pizza, Tai Lai, just across parking lot from dorms

Friday, June 10

9 am announcements

9:05 – 10:30 – John Berry, UC Berkeley

10:30 – 10:45 (15 MINUTE BREAK ONLY)

10:45 – 12:15 – Dr. Loriene Roy, American Library Association Past-President, Professor at University of Texas-Austin School of Information

12:15: Closing Blessing: Dr. Loriene Roy, Turn in evaluations; adjourn until next year!

